BURNS' COUNTRY.
Poosie Nansie's & Main St. Mauchline.

LL7738

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE — POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

Mauchline is a picturesque old village of a typical Scottish type, wherein for three years resided Robert Burns, Scotland's famous ploughman poet. Here he met Jean Armour, afterwards his wife, whose beauty and person inspired so many of his poems. Naturally there are many spots in the village which boast of an intimate connection with Burns' life. "Poosie Nansie's Hotel" in Main Street being one of these

(For Address Only)

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7664. Processed in Slavenia.

BURNS' COUNTRY, SER. II.

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

GTPA12 ?